

The MTVG Training Program

About Mobile TV Group:

Mobile TV Group is a leading national provider of mobile television production units for major sporting and entertainment broadcasts. Based in Denver, CO, it has mobile units throughout the U.S. serving clients including Fox Sports, ESPN, CBS and other networks. In business since 1994, it enjoys an outstanding reputation for its technological achievements and the highest standards of service.

Training Program Overview:

MTVG is proud of our official comprehensive training program that offers hands on training to become part of the BEST team of mobile engineers. You will be trained in the following areas:

+Engineering

You will join the engineers on site and learn what it takes to put on a live event. This will include set up, truck maintenance, client relations, and basic troubleshooting.

+Truck Integration

You will be given a unique opportunity to learn how a truck is built from start to finish. You will work with our integration crew to learn every aspect of what it takes to build a television truck.

+Maintenance

You will spend time with our maintenance group where you will learn how to fix and maintain the trucks' equipment. All equipment maintenance will be covered with a focus on camera repair and the trucks' IT infrastructure.

Successful MTVG Engineers are:

- Technically savvy
- Self-starters
- Team players
- Problem solvers
- Calm under pressure
- Excellent communicators

Mobile TV Group provides equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants for employment. In addition to federal law requirements, Mobile TV Group complies with applicable state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment in every location in which the company has facilities.

The Opportunity:

This is the perfect opportunity to start your career as a Mobile TV Engineer. Successful completion of the training program can lead to a great career in Sports Television Production with our fleet, which is located across the US.
